

pus, attachment for contempt, order of reference, writ of dower, writ of partition, order or writ of sale, or any other order or writ, (excepting a subpoena,) wherein the number of words does not exceed three hundred, thirty cents; for issuing any such writ, execution or order, (excepting subpoena,) wherein the number of words exceeds three hundred, ten cents for each one hundred words; for entering an order to advertise, twenty cents; for entering proof of publication, ten cents; for entering a rule for pleading, five cents; for taking an undertaking, bond or recognizance, thirty cents; for taking justification of bail, on notice, fifty cents; for endorsing or entering allowance of bail, five cents; for entering an exoneration of bail, ten cents; for entering the return of each writ or order, (excepting executions and subpoena,) five cents; for entering an appointment of a guardian for suit, ten cents; for issuing venire for jury, to be charged in each case wherein there is an issue made up, fifteen cents; impanelling a jury, in each case tried by a jury, and administering the oath, fifteen cents; for a certificate to each tales juror, for his fee, ten cents; for calling and entering each tales juror, five cents; for swearing constable, in each case tried by jury, five cents; for issuing subpoena wherein there is but one witness named, ten cents, and for each additional name on the subpoena, five cents; for swearing each witness and making entry of same five cents; for entering attendance of each witness, five cents; for a certificate to each witness for his fee, ten cents; for issuing a certificate of qualification of a witness for grand jury, ten cents; for entering each case on the bar and court calendar of each term, ten cents; for indexing each case, ten cents, for each term the same shall remain on docket; for entering an order, verdict rule or judgement, on the journal, when the number of words does not exceed one hundred, ten cents, and ten cents for each additional one hundred words, such entry may contain over that number; for transcribing or posting an order, verdict, rule or judgement on the appearance docket, ten cents; for entering satisfaction of a final order, or judgement to be taxed as an item of original costs, ten cents; for entering an assignment of a judgement or final order, ten cents; for entering each continuance, discontinuance, dismissal or settlement of a case, ten cents; for entering a notice of appeal, ten cents; for entering on the journal the finding of an indictment, ten cents; and entering on the journal any plea not required to be in writing, ten cents; for polling a jury when required, fifty cents; for attending to the striking of a special jury, and issuing a venire thereof, one dollar; for drawing a cost bill which shall be taxed but once in each case forty cents, for making up a complete record in each case, ten cents for each one hundred words such record may contain; for making out copies of process, pleadings, records, files, or any proceedings a case, (with the seal annexed when required by a party or the law,) ten cents for each one hundred words; for docketing each execution issued, ten cents; for making direct and reverse index to each execution, issued, ten cents; for entering and recording the return of an execution where the number of words does not exceed one hundred, ten cents; for entering and recording the return of an execution, where the number of words exceeds one hundred, ten cents for one hundred words; for each certificate with the seal of the court annexed, excepting when affixed to a copy required by a party, or the law, fifty cents; for each certificate to which the seal of the court is not required, and not herein otherwise provided for, twenty-five cents; for a search of files, records, or dockets, excepting for a party or an attorney, ten cents; for taking and entering a declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States, and for a certified copy of such entry under the seal of the court, twenty-five cents; for entering the final admission of an alien, the rights of citizenship, and for a certified copy thereof, under the seal of the county, twenty-five cents; for issuing license to a peddler, fifty cents; for issuing license to an auctioneer, a ferry keeper, or any other license ordered by the court, fifty cents; for receiving poll books of justices' elections, certifying elections therefrom, administering oath and entering same of record, one dollar, to be paid by each justice on receiving his commission; for receiving and disbursing monies, (other than costs and fees,) paid over to such clerks in pursuance of an order of court or on judgements, and which has not been collected by the sheriff or other proper officer, on order or execution, to be taxed against the party charged with the payment of such money, a commission of two per centum on the first thousand dollars, and of one per centum on all exceeding one thousand dollars.

Sec. 3. That the fees accruing to the Clerk for services rendered by him in any criminal cases, wherein the State fails to convict, or to collect the costs during the next vacation after sentence, shall be paid out of the county treasury, on the order of the county auditor, which shall issue upon the certificate of said clerk.

Sec. 4. That for drawing each grand jury and issuing a venire therefor, the clerk shall receive a fee one dollar; for certifying for fees of each grand juror, ten cents; and for all services rendered to the grand jury he shall receive the same fees as are allowed for similar services in a cause pending in court, the same to be paid out of the county treasury, in the same manner as the fees specified in the preceding section.

Sec. 5. That the several clerks of the said courts shall receive from the courts of their respective counties, in the same manner as the fees specified in the last two preceding sections, the following fees for miscellaneous services, performed by them respectively: for making out abstracts or elections, (except justices' elections) for each one hundred words, ten cents; for each certificate with the seal of the court attached to abstracts, fifty cents; for certifying for fees of judges & clerks of elections, ten cents each; for certifying the enumeration of white male citizens over the age of twenty one years, to the Secretary of State, one dollar; and for filing each list of such enumeration, ten cents; for apportioning jurors to the several townships, copying the names, and placing the same in the jury box, three dollars annually; for making up and completing general indexes, direct and reverse, of all judgements, final orders and decrees, fifteen cents for each case so indexed; for making out lists of unclaimed costs, and paying the same to the treasurer, five per centum on the amount of money paid; for reporting annually to the County Commissioners the amount of fines assessed by their respective courts, one dollar; for reporting annually to prosecuting attorney, amount of fines and costs, collections thereon, &c., three dollars; for reporting annually to Auditor of State as to collection of costs in Penitentiary cases, one dollar; for each civil jury list certified to county treasurer, fifty cents; for distributing the laws, journals and documents of the State, five dollars annually.

Sec. 6. That the county commissioners shall furnish the clerks of courts of their respective counties, all the blank book, blank stationery, and all other things necessary to the prompt discharge of their duties; all which articles the clerks may for themselves procure, and shall be allowed for upon their certificate.

Sec. 7. That the act entitled "an act to regulate the fees of clerks of the courts of common pleas," passed May 1, 1852, and section fifty-two of the act entitled "an act to regulate the election of State and county officers," passed May 3, 1852, and section three of the act entitled "an act to provide for collecting the statistics of crime," passed May 1, 1852, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

Sec. 8. That this act shall take effect, and be in force from and after its passage.

F. C. LEBLOND,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.
ROBERT LEE,

President of the Senate pro tem.
May 1, 1854.

[102] AN ACT

To amend "an act prescribing the duties of County Treasurers," passed March 12, 1831, and to repeal section thirteen of said act.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General

Assembly of the State of Ohio, That section thirteen of "an act prescribing the duties of county treasurers," passed March twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, be, and the same is hereby so amended as to read as follows: Section 13. That the county treasurer shall, immediately after receiving from the auditor of his county, a duplicate of the taxes assessed upon the property of such county, cause notice to be posted up in three places in each township throughout the county, one of which shall be the place of holding elections in the township, and also to be inserted in some newspaper having general circulation in his county for six successive weeks, specifying particularly in said notice the amount of tax levied on the duplicate for the support of the State government, for the payment of interest and principal of the public debt; for the support of State common schools; for defraying county expenses; for the repairing of roads; for keeping the poor, for the building of bridges, for township expenses, and for each other objects for which taxes may be levied on each dollar valuation; also, on what day the treasurer or his deputy, will attend at the place of holding elections in each township for the purpose of receiving such taxes; and the treasurer or his deputy shall attend for the purpose aforesaid, on the day, and at the place named in such notices; and shall attend at his office at the seat of justice, until the twentieth of December, to receive taxes from persons wishing to pay the same; Provided, that the county commissioners of any county, at their stated meeting in June, in any year, if they shall deem it necessary for the convenience of the citizens of any township, or townships in their county, to enable them to pay their taxes, without attending at the county seat, may make an order, requiring the county treasurer to attend one day in such township, or townships for the purpose of receiving taxes, and shall notify the treasurer thereof, and the treasurer shall be bound to attend accordingly, and shall state in the notices to be given as aforesaid, on what days he will attend in said township or townships, for that purpose.

Sec. 2. Original section thirteen of the above recited act, "and the fifty-second section of the act for the assessment and taxation of all property in this State, and for levying taxes thereon according to its true value in money," passed April 13, 1852.

F. C. LEBLOND,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

ROBERT LEE,

President of the Senate, pro tem.

May 1st, 1854.

[109] AN ACT

Supplementary to an act to provide for the assessment and taxation of all property in this State, and for levying taxes thereon according to its true value in money, passed April 13, 1852.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, That in any county in this state, where it shall prove impracticable for assessors to complete their assessments for the year eighteen hundred and fifty-four, within the period limited in "an act for the assessment and taxation of all property in this state, and for levying taxes thereon according to its true value in money," passed April thirteenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, it shall be lawful for the auditor of said county to extend the time for such assessment, till the fifth Monday in May; and in all such cases the meeting of the county board of equalization shall take place on the second Tuesday after the fourth Monday in May.

F. C. LEBLOND,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

ROBERT LEE,

President of the Senate, pro tem.

May 1st, 1854.

[110] AN ACT

Supplementary to an act entitled "an act to prohibit unauthorized Banking, and the circulation of unauthorized bank paper," passed March 12, 1845.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, That it shall be unlawful for any officer or agent of any banking company, or of any other incorporated company, any private banker, broker, dealer in money, the treasurer of this state, or the treasurer of any county of this state, or any clerk or agent of any private banker, broker, or dealer in money; or any clerk or assistant of the treasurer of state, or of the treasurer of any county of this state, either directly or indirectly, to put in circulation, pay out, loan, or exchange, otherwise than to send or deliver for the purposes of redemption, to the company, person or persons, trustee or trustees, bound to redeem the same, any bank note or notes of any bank of this state, whose charter, or whose right to issue notes of circulation shall have expired, or which shall have given notice officially of its intention to close its banking business; and any person or persons who shall violate any of the foregoing provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars for each and every offence, or be imprisoned in the jail of the county for any period of time not exceeding thirty days, or both, at the discretion of the court; Provided, that no such company, after the passage of this act, shall re-issue any of its circulating notes redeemed by it or received in the ordinary course of business, but shall keep a regular account thereof, and monthly, in the presence of the auditor and treasurer of state, burn the same.

Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, whose duty it is, or who is or are bound by any law of this state to redeem the notes of any banking company, whose charter or right to issue notes of circulation shall have expired, or which has given notice officially of its intention to close its banking business; or for any trustee or trustees of such banking company, or any agent of such person or persons, trustee or trustees as aforesaid, to put in circulation, pay out, loan or exchange, either directly or indirectly, any note or notes of any such banking company, described in this section of this act; and any person or persons offending against the provisions of this section mentioned, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail for any period of time not exceeding thirty days, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Sec. 3. Prosecutions for violations of this act, shall be by information of the prosecuting attorney, or by indictment of the grand jury of the county in which the offence was committed, in the court of common pleas, or any other court having competent jurisdiction of like offences.

Sec. 4. That section six of the act entitled "an act supplementary to the act entitled an act to prevent unauthorized banking and the circulation of unauthorized bank paper," passed January 22d, 1846, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the trustee or trustees, or agent of any banking company whose charter or right to issue notes of circulation shall have expired, or which has given notice officially of its intention to close its banking business, to redeem its notes in the order of their presentation; and on the refusal of the trustee or trustees, or agent, to redeem any notes presented for redemption, the holder thereof shall have the same protested, and all protested notes shall draw interest at the rate of fifteen per cent. per annum, from the date of protest until redeemed.

Sec. 6. This act to take effect from and after the first day of December next.

F. C. LEBLOND,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

ROBERT LEE,

President of the Senate, pro tem.

May 1st, 1854.

AUDITOR'S OFFICE, PERRYSBURG, }
May 29, 1854. }

I certify that the foregoing laws are correct according to the copies certified to by the Secretary of State and furnished to this office by the contractor for publishing the laws in newspapers.

J. N. WESTCOTT,
Auditor Wood County.

End of the Laws!